Representative David Cook Statement on Empowerment Scholarship Accounts Vote

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Representative David Cook (R-8) released the following statement on his vote yesterday in support of SB 1431, legislation that expands Empowerment Scholarship Accounts (ESAs) and establishes various transparency and accountability measures.

“Education is the right of every child growing up in Arizona,” said Representative Cook. “We can't hold back children who learn in different ways and benefit from alternative types of education. Parents should be empowered to choose the best education for their child.”

Governor Ducey signed SB 1431 into law yesterday following the House vote.
